Guidelines/ Instructions and Regulations regarding admission of Children to Grade I.

1.0. Before submission of applications following regulations and information should be carefully studied.

2.0. Basic Qualifications.

2.1. child should have completed 05 years of age as at 31st Jan. 2015. In confirmation of the same, the birth certificate should be forwarded. Only in respect of schools where the number of applications received is less than the number of vacancies, a child can be admitted on the basis of a affidavit supporting the date of birth. However, action should be taken to forward the birth certificate at the earliest.

2.2. Children whose age is 06 years or more as at 31st Jan. 2015 can be admitted only after the admission of children whose age is less than 06 years.

3.0. Special attention is drawn to the following facts (in respect of all categories)

3.1. At the first interview, 30 children will be selected for each grade one class (for all grade one parallel classes), and in addition to this 30, 03 more children will be selected at the interview on appeals and objections, thus making a total of 33. In addition, 07 more children selected from among children of those who were or who are in the three armed forces and the police will be admitted on the basis of recommendations by the Ministry of Defense, totaling up to 40.

- 3.2. In filling vacancies in schools taken over by the government under Assisted Schools and Training schools (special provisions) Act No. 05 of 1960 and Assisted Schools and Training Schools (Supplementary Provisions) Act No.08 of 1961, the proportion of children belonging to different religions at the time a given school was taken over by the government will be taken into consideration and the number of vacancies in the said school will be accordingly divided among different religions and categories. When the number of applications is less than the number of vacancies set apart for a given category of a religion, the balance vacancies will be proportionately divided among other categories of the same religion. When there are no applicants from a religion, or when the number of applications from a religion is less than the number of vacancies set apart for that religion, the balance will be proportionately divided among other religions.
- 3.3. When the parents are not living at the same place and are not legally separated, on confirmation by relevant documents that they have entered the process of legal separation, the place at which the (mother or father) of the applicant is resident will be considered the place of residence of the child.
- 3.4. Only a person who has been appointed as a guardian to adopt a child in terms of a court decision will be accepted as a legal guardian. For the children from orphanages, the care taker of the orphanage will be accepted, as the legal guardian. The legal guardian should have received the court order prior to the closing date of application.
- 3.5. The parents/ legal guardians should be residents of the administrative district in which the school is situated. When a school is situated on the border of an administrative district, the residents of the nearest Divisional Secretary's Division of administrative district can apply for the said school. Such Divisional Secretary's Divisions are considered parts of the feeder areas of the school. When past pupils apply for the school this limitation is not taken into consideration.
- 3.6. A child who has already been admitted to a government school, a government approved private school or any other school in a previous year is not qualified to apply during this year.

4.0. Procedure for submitting applications.

- 4.1. Those who were or are in the three armed forces and the police and are hoping to admit children to schools under the special concessions given to them, should forward their applications by filling the special application forms made available to them by the Welfare Director Board and directing them to the Director of Welfare Services through their units.
- 4.2. Other parents/ legal guardians qualified to apply for admission of their children should forward their applications by registered post, with a stamped envelop for registered post in which the applicant's name, address are written, and copies of documents regarding qualifications necessary for the admission of the child certified by the applicant himself to reach the principal of the relevant school before 04 July 2014. Only in respect of schools where the number of applications is less than the number of vacancies, the applications can be forwarded by hand, and when applications are submitted by hand a receipt should be obtained from the school.
- 4.3. If the children of those who were or are in the three armed services and the Police are qualified to apply for a school direct, they can submit applications to the principal of the relevant school.
- 4.4. If an applicant is entitled to apply to a school under several categories, applications should be sent separately under each category. The category should be mentioned on the top left hand corner of the envelop.
- 4.5. An applicant applying for a given school can also apply for other schools to which he is entitled. In such cases, applications can be sent to a maximum of 06 schools so that a minimum of 03 provincial schools are included with national schools. The order of priority for schools applied, should be given as preferred by the applicant.

- 4.6. When applications are sent to schools where teaching is done in two learning media (Sinhala and Tamil) applications can be sent separately for both learning media. However, if selected for one learning medium, that medium cannot be changed.

5.0 Selection Procedure.

- 5.1 Selections of students will be made by an Interview Board only if the number of applications received on the prescribed date is more than the number of students that could be selected by the school for Grade One in the school.
- 5.2 The Interview Board will allocate marks after examining all applications and based on the marks priority, four times the number of admissible students will be selected and thereafter the relevant applicants will be notified to appear for an interview.
- 5.3 If the applicants are not available within four times the number of vacancies applicants will not be called for an interview. However the Principal will take action to notify the applicants in writing clearly indicating the reasons for not calling them for interviews
